VII. Section Fifty-eight of the said Court of Probate Act shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Sect. 63, of 20 & 21 Vict. c. 75, to apply to

VIII. The said Court of Probate Act, Section Sixty-three, shall, so far as Assistant Barristers or their Courts are concerned, apply to an Application

40

Application for the Revocation of a Grant of Probate or Administration as well as to an Application for any such Grant.

Applications for Revocation of Grants.

IX. The Power and Authority to make Rules and Orders for regulating the Proceedings of the Assistant Barristers Courts shall extend and be applicable to all Proceedings in the Assistant Barristers Courts under this Act, and also to framing a Scale of Costs and Charges to be paid to Counsel, Proctors, Solicitors, and Attorneys in respect of Proceedings in such Courts, under the said Court of Probate Act or this Act.

Power to make Rules and Orders and frame Scales of Fees for the County Courts.

X. All Non-contentious Business pending in any Ecclesiastical Court at the Time when "The Court of Probate Act" came into operation shall be deemed to have been transferred to the Court of Probate, in the same Way as all pending Suits were transferred to the said Court under the said Act, and all Acts executed under the Authority of such Ecclesiastical Court with reference to such Business which would have been valid if the Authority of such Court had not been abolished shall be valid, and all Oaths and Bonds sworn and executed in manner required by any such Ecclesiastical Court in reference to such Business, prior to the Eleventh Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, shall continue to have and be deemed to have had the same Force and Effect in Law as they would have had if sworn and executed in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Act or of this Act.

Non-contentious Business pending in any Ecclesiastical Court to be transferred.

XI. Bonds given to any Archbishop, Bishop, or other Person exercising Testamentary Jurisdiction in respect of Grants of Letters of Administration made prior to the Eleventh Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, or in respect of Grants made in pursuance of the Court of Probate Act or of this Act, whether taken under a Commission or Requisition executed before or after the said Eleventh Day of January, shall enure to the Benefit of the Judge of the Court of Probate, and, if necessary, shall be put in force in the same Manner and subject to the same Rules (so far as the same may be applicable to them) as if they had been given to the Judge of the said Court subsequently to that Day.

An Executor not acting or not appearing to a Citation to be treated as if he had renounced.

Judge of the Court of Probate may amend Grants made before 11 Jan. 1859.

XIII. The Judge of the Court of Probate shall have and exercise the same Power of altering and amending Grants of Probate and Letters of Administration made before the Eleventh Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight as any Ecclesiastical Court had and exercised in respect of such Grants.

Provisions of 38 G. 3. c. 37, and 20 & 21 Vict. c. 78, extended to all Cases of Executors and Administrators.

XIV. The Provisions of an Act passed in the Thirty-eighth Year of George the Third, Chapter Eighty-seven, and of "The Court of Probate Act," shall be extended to all Executors and Administrators residing out of the Jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Courts of Law and Equity in Ireland, whether it be or he not intended to institute Proceedings in the Court of Chancery, and to all Grants made before and subsequently to the passing of the last-mentioned Act; and it shall be lawful to alter the Language of the Grant prescribed by the first-named Statute so as to make it apply to Grants made in the Court of Probate under the said last-mentioned Act.

Between the Death of the Person deceased and the Grant the Property to vest in the Judge Ordinary.

XV. From and after the Decease of any Person dying intestate, and until Letters of Administration shall be granted in respect of his Estate and Effects, the Personal Estate and Effects of such deceased Person shall be vested in the Judge of the Court of Probate for the Time being, in the same Manner and to the same Extent as heretofore they vested in the Ordinary.

Second and subsequent Grants to be made where the original Will or the original Letters of Administration are deposited.

XVI. All Second and subsequent Grants of Probate or Letters of Administration shall be made in the Principal Registry, or in the District Registry where the original Will is registered or the original Grant of Letters of Administration has been made, or in the District Registry to which the original Will or a registered Copy thereof, or the Record of the original Grant of Administration, have been transmitted, by virtue of a Requisition issued in pursuance of Section Ninety-six of "The Court of Probate Act;" and for and in respect of such Second or subsequent Grants of Probate or Letters of Administration to be made in a District Registry, it shall not be requisite that it should appear by Affidavit that the Testator or Intestate had a fixed Place of Abode within the District in which the Application is made.

The Court of Probate may require Security from a Receiver of Real Estate.

XVII. It shall be lawful for the Court of Probate to require Security by Bond in such Form as the Judge shall from Time to Time by any General or Special Orders direct, with or without Sureties, from any Receiver of the Real Estate of any deceased Person appointed by the said Court, under Section Seventy-five of "The Court of Probate Act," or for Payment of Costs in any Cause or Matter in which the Court shall direct Security for Costs to be given;

given; and the Court may, on Application made on Motion or in a summary Way, order One of the Registrars of the Court to assign the same to some Person to be named in such Order; and such Person, his Executors or Administrators, shall thereupon be entitled to sue on the said Security, or put the same in force in his or their own Name or Names, both at Law and in Equity, as if the same had been originally given to him instead of to the Judge of the said Court, and shall be entitled to recover thereon, as Trustee for all Persons interested, the full Amount due in virtue thereof.

10 XVIII. All the Provisions contained in the Court of Probate Act respecting Grants of Administration pending Suit shall be deemed to apply to the Case of Appeals to the Court of Appeal in Chancery in Ireland, and also to the House of Lords, under the said Act. Administration pending Suit deemed to apply to Appeals.

XIX. It shall be lawful for a Registrar of the Principal Registry of the Court of Probate, and whether any Suit or other Proceeding shall or shall not be pending in the said Court, to issue a Subpoena requiring any Person to produce and bring into the Principal or any District Registry, or otherwise, as in the said Subpoena may be directed, any Paper or Writing being or purporting to be testamentary, which may be shown to be in the Possession, within the Power, or under the Control of such Person; and such Person, upon being duly served with the said Subpoena, shall be bound to produce and bring in such Paper or Writing, and shall be subject to the like Process of Contempt in case of Default as if he had been a Party to a Suit in the said Court, and had been ordered by the Judge of the Court of Probate to produce and bring in such Paper or Writing. Registrars may issue Subpoenas to produce Papers, &c.

XX. The Registrars of the Principal Registry shall be invested with and shall and may exercise with reference to Proceedings in the Court of Probate the same Power and Authority which Surrogates of the Judge of the Prerogative Court of Canterbury could or might before the passing of the Court of Probate Act have exercised in Chambers with reference to Proceedings in the said Prerogative Court. The Registrars to do all Acts heretofore done by Surrogates.

XXI. Copies of Wills required to be transmitted by a District Registrar, and certified by him to be correct Copies, under Section Fifty-five of the Court of Probate Act, may be so certified and transmitted under a Stamp provided by the District Registrar for that Purpose, and approved of by the Judge of the Court of Probate. Copies of Wills may be certified by a Stamp.

XXII. Certificates issued from the Principal Registry with reference to Notices of Applications transmitted from the District Registrars, Certificates from the Principal Registry

stamped.

trans, under Section Fifty-three of the Court of Probate Act, need not be made under the Hand of a Registrar of the Principal Registry, as required by the said Act, but may be issued under a Stamp provided for that Purpose, and approved of by the Judge of the Court of Probate.

Requisitions
may be issued for the Transmission of a single Paper.

XXIII. Whereas Doubts have been entertained whether a Requisition can be issued under Section Ninety-six of the Court of Probate Act for the Transmission of One or more Papers only, not being all the Papers and Documents in the Custody of the Person to whom any such Requisition may be addressed: Be it therefore enacted and 10 declared, That the said Section shall be construed to extend to all Requisitions, whether for the Transmission of One or of more Records, Wills, Grants, Probates, Letters of Administration, Administration Bonds, Notes of Administration, Court Books, Calendars, Deeds, Processes, Acts, Proceedings, or other Instruments relating 15 exclusively or principally to Matters and Causes Testamentary.

Power to enforce Decree as to Costs.

XXIV. The Judge of the Court of Probate, and the Registrars of the Principal Registry thereof, shall respectively in any Case where an Ecclesiastical or other Court having Testamentary Jurisdiction had previously to the Eleventh Day of January One thousand 20 eight hundred and fifty-eight made an Order or Decree in respect of Costs, have the same Power of taxing such Costs and enforcing Payment thereof, or of otherwise carrying such Order or Decree into effect, as if the Cause wherein such Decree was made had been originally commenced and prosecuted in the said Court of Probate: 25 Provided that in taxing any such Costs, or any other Costs incurred in Causes depending in any such Courts before the Time aforesaid, all Fees, Charges, and Expenses shall be allowed which might have been legally made, charged, and enforced according to the Practice of the Prerogative Court of Ireland.

Letters of Administration granted in Ireland
not to be re-sealed in England
until sufficient Bond
is given.

XXV. Letters of Administration granted by the Court of Probate in England shall not be resealed, under Section Ninety-four of the Twentieth and Twenty-first Victoria, Chapter Seventy-nine, until a Certificate has been filed, under the Hand of a Registrar of the Court of Probate in England, that Bond has been given to the Judge of 35 the Court of Probate in England in a Sum sufficient in Amount to cover the Property in Ireland as well as England in respect of which such Administration is required to be resealed.

Commissioners may be appointed in the Isle of Man, &c.

XXVI. It shall be lawful for the Judge of the Court of Probate to appoint by Commission, under Seal of the Court, any Persons 40 practising as Solicitors in the Isle of Man, in the Channel Islands, or any

any of them, and also such Persons resident in England, Wales, and Scotland as he shall think fit, to administer Oaths, and to take Declarations or Affirmations, and to exercise any other Powers which can be exercised by Commissioners of Her Majesty's Court of Probate; and such Persons shall be entitled from Time to Time to charge and take such Fees as any other Persons performing the same Duties in the Court of Probate may charge and take.

XXVII. In Cases where it is necessary to obtain Affidavits, Declarations, or Affirmations, to be used in the Court of Probate from Persons residing in Foreign Parts, out of Her Majesty's Dominions, the same may be sworn, declared, or affirmed before the Persons empowered to administer Oaths under the Act of the Sixth of George the Fourth, Chapter Eighty-seven, or under the Act of the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Victoria, Chapter Forty-two; provided that in Places where there are no such Persons as are mentioned in the said Acts such Affidavits, Declarations, or Affirmations may be made, declared, and affirmed before any Foreign local Magistrate or other Person having Authority to administer an Oath.

Affidavits, before whom to be sworn when Parties making them reside in Foreign Parts.

XXVIII. Affidavits, Declarations, and Affirmations to be used in the Court of Probate may be sworn and taken in the Isle of Man, the Channel Islands, or any Colony, Island, Plantation, or Place out of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland under the Dominion of Her Majesty, before any Court, Judge, Notary Public, or Person lawfully authorized to administer Oaths in such Country, Colony, Island, Plantation, or Place respectively, or, so far as relates to the Isle of Man and the Channel Islands, before any Commissary, Ecclesiastical Judge, or Surrogate who at the Time of the passing of the Court of Probate Act was authorized to administer Oaths in the Isle of Man or in the Channel Islands respectively, and all Registrars and other Officers of the Court of Probate shall take judicial Notice of the Seal or Signature, as the Case may be, of any such Court, Judge, Notary Public, or Person, which shall be attached, suspended, or subscribed to any such Affidavit, Declaration, or Affirmation, or to any other Document.

Affidavits, before whom to be sworn.

XXIX. If any Person shall forge any such Seal or Signature as last aforesaid, or any Seal or Signature impressed, affixed, or subscribed, under the Provisions of the said Act of the Sixth of George the Fourth, or of the said Act of the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Victoria, to any Affidavit, Declaration, or Affirmation to be used in the Court of Probate, or shall tender in Evidence any such Document as aforesaid with a false or counterfeit Seal or Signature thereto, knowing the same to be false or counterfeit, he shall be guilty of Felony.

Persons forging Seal or Signature guilty of Felony.

Felony, and shall upon Conviction be liable to Penal Servitude for the Term of his Life, or for any Term not less than Seven Years, or to be imprisoned, with or without Hard Labour, for any Term not exceeding Three Years nor less than One Year; and whenever any such Document has been admitted in Evidence by virtue of this Act, 5 the Court, or the Person who has admitted the same, may, at the Request of any Party against whom the same is so admitted in Evidence, direct that the same shall be impounded and be kept in the Custody of some Officer of the Court, or other proper Person, for such Period and subject to such Conditions as to the said Court or Person 10 shall seem meet; and every Person charged with committing any Felony under this Act may be dealt with, indicted, tried, and, if convicted, sentenced, and his Offence may be laid and charged to have been committed, in the County, District, or Place in which he may be apprehended or be in Custody; and every Accessory before or 15 after the Fact to any such Offence may be dealt with, indicted, tried, and, if convicted, sentenced, and his Offence laid and charged to have been committed, in any County, District, or Place in which the principal Offender may be tried.

Persons taking a false Oath before a Surrogate guilty of Perjury.

XXX. Any Person who shall wilfully give false Evidence, or who shall wilfully swear, affirm, or declare falsely in any Affidavit or Deposition before any Surrogate having Authority to administer Oaths under the Court of Probate Act, or before any Person who before the passing of the said Act was a Surrogate authorized to administer Oaths in any of the Channel Islands, or before any Person 25 authorized to administer Oaths under this Act, shall be liable to the Penalties and Consequences of wilful and corrupt Perjury.

Provision for the necessary Absence of Officers.

XXXI. In case any Officer appointed or to be appointed by virtue of the Court of Probate Act, 1857, or of this Act, shall by reason of Ill-health or other Infirmary become temporarily 30 incapable of performing the Duties of his Office, it shall be lawful for the Judge to appoint some other fit and proper Person to discharge the Duties of such Office for any Period not exceeding Six Calendar Months at any One Time, and the Person so appointed shall, during such Period, have all the Power and Authority of the Officer in whose 35 Place he shall be so appointed, and shall be paid by such Officer such Sum by way of Salary or Allowance as shall be agreed upon between them respectively, or be fixed by the Judge; and the Judge may, at his Discretion, give Leave of Absence to any Officer of the Court for any Period not exceeding Two Months in any Year, 40 and shall have the like Power of making Provision for the Discharge of the Duties of the Office during such Absence.

XXXII. The

XXXII. The Judge of the Court of Probate shall have and exercise, over Proctors, Solicitors, and Attorneys practising in the said Court, the like Authority and Control as is now exercised by the Judges of any Court of Equity or Common Law over Persons practising therein as Solicitors or Attorneys.

The Judge to have the same Powers over Practitioners as Judges of other Courts.

XXXIII. When any Requisition shall issue in pursuance of Section Ninety-six of "The Court of Probate Act, 1857," it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, out of such Monies as may be provided and appropriated by Parliament for that Purpose, to cause to be paid all such Expenses attending the Arranging, Classification, Indexing, Carriage, or otherwise connected with the Removal of the Documents or Books required by such Requisition to be removed as the Judge shall from Time to Time certify to the said Commissioners to be proper and necessary.

Provision for Expenses of Indexing. So Documents required to be removed under Requisition.

XXXIV. In calculating the Time of Service of any Judge of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Law or Equity in Ireland with reference to the Retiring Pension or Annuity to be granted to such Judge on the Resignation of his Office, the Period during which he shall have served as Judge of Her Majesty's Court of Probate in Ireland shall be allowed, in like and same Manner as if he had during said Period served as One of the Judges of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Law or Equity in Ireland.

Mode of calculating Time of Service of Judges of Superior Courts of Law or Equity with reference to Retiring Pension.

XXXV. Sections Nineteen and Twenty of the Chancery Appeal Court (Ireland) Act, 1856, so far as they refer to and include the Court of Prerogative in Ireland and the Judge thereof, shall be construed, deemed, and taken to refer to and include the Court of Probate in Ireland and the Judge thereof, in like and the same Manner as if the said Court of Probate in Ireland and the Judge thereof had been therein referred to and included, instead of the said Court of Prerogative in Ireland and the Judge thereof.

Sections 19. & 20. of Court of Chancery Appeal Court (Ireland) Act, 1856 to include Court of Probate in Ireland.

XXXVI. In citing this Act in any Instrument, Document, or Proceeding it shall be sufficient to use the Expression "Court of Probate Act (Ireland), 1859."
